Three-peat

Grey Gables Inn voted Charlevoix's 'Hot Chocolate Champ' for third year in a row

While the Third Annual Flurry Fest offered several changes to its offerings this year, one feature that remained constant was the winner of the event's hot chocolate contest. For the third year running, the Grey Gables Inn was voted by Flurry Fest attendees as Charlevoix's 'Hot Chocolate Champ.'

"This year's contest featured seven terrific Charlevoix-area restaurants offering some truly unique variations of traditional hot chocolate," said Charlevoix Downtown Development Authority Executive Director Keith Carey. "We sincerely appreciate the efforts of each and every participant. It's a lot of work to prepare enough hot chocolate for several hundred people to sample."

In addition to the Grey Gables Inn, the other eateries vying for the title at this year's event were Kilwin's, The Rowe Inn, Sadie & Jake's Gallery & Café, Scovie's Gourmet, Stafford's Weathervane and Whitney's.

"The seven participating eateries represent the most entries we've had yet," Carey said. "We're hopeful even more will challenge for the title next year."
